Why Little Bear·s Heartworm Treatment Was Delayed

Little Bear·s scheduled heartworm treatment was postponed after he became severely ill following a September 2026 boarding stay. He required emergency hospitalization and surgery, and needed time to recover before resuming treatment. He is scheduled to restart treatment on November 2, 2026.

Rescue Clarification to Veterinary Estimate

Added by Nicole's Fosters & Rescues — not part of Dearborn Animal Hospital's estimate

Why this note is included

The attached two-page estimate from Dearborn Animal Hospital (dated October 13, 2026) shows estimated charges of $991.08–$1,088.04. Its heartworm treatment line is listed at $445 and refers to a three-injection treatment.

Additional injection-cost explanation

Our understanding is that $445 is charged per injection. If all three injections are billed at $445 each, the injection charges would total $1,335, adding $890 for the two additional injections. This calculation is based on our understanding, not a revised estimate issued by Dearborn Animal Hospital.

Adjusted projected treatment cost

Original estimate: $991.08–$1,088.04. Additional two injections: $890.00. Adjusted projected cost: $1,881.08–$1,978.04 (approximately $1,900–$2,000), before any applicable credit-card surcharge. Final charges are subject to confirmation by the hospital.
